B M Rogers, of Bushnell, Ill. bought 7 head of fancy stock at the Proctor and Son sale and shipped them home for breeding purposes

The following farmers have shipped cattle of their own feeding. J H McClintic 1 car; J B McClintic 1 car and J M Proctor and Son 1 car.

J H (Tip) McClintic the up-to-date, successful farmer and stock raiser and feeder has purchased a corn shredder, that will handle his big corn crop nicely.

The J M Proctor and Son sale amounted to a fraction over $1,100. Every thing brought a good price except the fancy bred Hereford cattle. Some five years ago we took the position that fancy prices for Hereford cattle was on the wane and now that they have reached the price of good beef cattle or statement has been more than verified.

Madden Bros bought 26 head of mules at the J M Proctor and Son sale at $112 per head.

Henry Durst and Son are feeding 1030 head of sheep for the market.

I P Stephens has 30 yearling steers that are doing remarkably fine.

Corn.

Five ears, one each of yellow, white, red and callico corn that was in the Farmers and DEMOCRAT'S corn show, by request has been given to Mrs. M E. Greenleaf who left Tuesday for El Paso, Texas. She wanted it to leave in the Chamber of Commerce, to show what Missouri is doing in that line. We regretted that the corn display had been picked over and that we could not give her the best. But even that will be an eye opener for the Lone Star State.

Clarence Clough, of near Warren has delivered 5 good cows to J L Owen.

Sam Sandifer is wedded to Cooperville. Any way he has moved back from Shell to the W P Young farm. Mr and Mrs Young have moved back to the city and their town friends are glad to have them once again.

Isaac N Melson has bought beeves from Mat Tulley 4, Bud Dooley 6, W Bannister 4, B Painter 6 and sold 4 tog Bricker and Spiker and sent 13 to the Bluff City market Monday.

For Sale.

Scene: Registry office. Bridegroom to registrar—"The first time I was married in a church, the second time in a chapel, but I like this way best. It's so simple—and I should come here if ever I got married again—(catches sight of his bride and see he has said the wrong thing)—that is, my dear, if I ever have the—er—misfortune to get married again, of course!"—Punch.
